Keen Interest Shown At Bard Plan Panel

Exhibit Attracts 800 Third Night

Three-Day Attendance Is Above 3,300: Acts Well Received

A crowd of more than 800 turned out despite unfavorable weather for the third night of "The Kingston Area on Parade," the industrial and mercantile exposition at the municipal auditorium last night.

The three-day attendance of more than 3,300 will be boosted considerably as the crowds at the show tonight and tomorrow are expected to exceed Wednesday's 1,500 attendance.

The Lions Club which is sponsoring the exposition, the exhibiting merchants, and the public seems thoroughly satisfied with the results as shown in the first three nights, Lawrence Jr. MacAvery, chairman of the Lions Club committee in charge, said today.

It was this all-out response to the show which led to the club's decision to make it an annual affair.

A surprising amount of merchandise has been ordered at the various display booths to date, the chairman said, and the show is a success in all other respects.

Fred Romer, who was billed as the international pickpocket, was unable to appear last night, but will be here to entertain the Saturday night crowd, it was announced today.

Marsch Babtl, outstanding hypnotist, however, proved to be top-notch entertainment for last night's large crowd as a substitute on the program, and many who attended were still talking today about his baffling performance.

Many more awards will be made on the final two nights of the exposition, the chairman said, and tomorrow night the names of the winners in the 4-H Club contest, sponsored by the Eastern Tractor Manufacturing Corp., 36 St. James street, will be announced.

The local industry is awarding a tractor to the boy and girl who place first respectively in the popularity contest. Ballots are distributed at the exposition and have been available in the local press for voting in the contest.

Duties Are Planned

Key West, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Defense Secretary James A. Forrestal and the joint chiefs of staff planned today the wartime duties of the armed services. The conference at the navy base here began yesterday. The nation's top military men are in attendance. No word came from the closely guarded conference except that Forrestal was there and a meeting was on.

Briggs Plant Closes

Detroit, March 12 (AP)—The Briggs Manufacturing Co. closed its 1,000-man Vernor avenue plant today following renewed anti-Communist demonstrations by employes. For the third successive day, about 200 employes in the final trim department quit their machines rather than work with three men whom they accused of Communist activity.

New York Bill Passes

Albany, N. Y., March 12 (AP)—The Assembly today passed one of Mayor William O'Dwyer's dwindled "package" bills for the financial relief of New York City. It enables the city to double its present tax of one-tenth of one per cent on financial institutions. O'Dwyer has estimated the yield from the increase would be $30,000,000 annually.

Attendance Is Very Good Despite Storm; Next Is Wednesday

In a meeting highlighted by a lively question and answer period the second in a series of eight panel discussions in the Bard Plan for Small Business was held last night at Kingston High School for approximately 400 persons.

The main speaker was D'Alton Bristol Myers, of Washington, internationally-known author and expert on small business problems. Myers' topic was How to Organize and Maintain Your Business Operations for Greater Profits.

The moderator was Alfred J. Worsdell, Jr., of Albany, first deputy commissioner of the New York State Department of Commerce, whose keen wit and penetrating remarks kept the meeting going at a lively pace. The program held the interest of the group for more than two and one-half hours.

Attendance at last night's session was cut by the snowstorm, which made highway travel hazardous.

Arthur J. Laidlaw, Kingston Superintendent of Schools, who was chairman for the evening, announced that all future meetings are scheduled for Wednesday evenings and the time has been changed to 7:30 o'clock. The two previous sessions began at 7. The change will be of help to distant residents of the Hudson valley.

Next week's meeting will be on the topic, How to Plan a Management and Financial Program for Business.

Commissioner Worsdell was assisted in his role of moderator at last night's session by Waldo Ehlman, of the department's bureau of distribution, and Dale Swartzmiller, who is in charge of the Kingston regional office of the department of commerce. The committee is deeply indebted to the assistance given by the Kingston High School girls.

Outlines Seven Essentials

Myers outlined what he termed seven essentials for expansion and financial success of a small business and of the man or men running it. He admonished the small business man present to:

1. Reserve time and energy to make sound policy decisions. "This is the hardest job in business . . . most of us like to dodge making them," he said.

2. Plan and build an organization, no matter how small the business.

3. "Learn to multiply yourself. By this I mean that the business decisions you make, the policies you initiate and the operations you plan must become known to everyone in your organization. This usually means reducing them to writing."

4. Learn to use the other man's money and wealth. "The world is literally crying for men who can use the other man's money or wealth, of course at a price, which is just another name for interest or dividends. So much idle capital is seeking investment that any

University Alterations Will Pass

Battle With Regents Continues; Bill Is Sent to Governor for Signature

Concern Expressed

Trustees' Control Is Point of Discussion by Spokesmen

Albany, N. Y., March 12 (AP)—Governor Dewey's administration made peace today with private educators but continued its war with the Board of Regents over the $200,000,000 state university program approved by the Legislature.

Amendments to meet objections of private institutions to the Feinberg-Steingut bill authorizing establishment of a state university system were slated for passage late today under the impetus of emergency messages from Dewey.

The bill was passed by the Assembly late yesterday, 137 to 10, and sent to Dewey for his signature along with two related measures, which:

1. Authorize creation of community colleges.

2. Outlaw racial and religious discrimination in the admission of students to institutions of higher learning.

The vote of the community college bill was 129-18 and on the anti-bias measure 145-1. All the negative votes on the three bills were cast by Republicans.

The first amendment to the Feinberg-Steingut bill postpones from next July 1 to April 1, 1949, the date on which the state university's temporary board of trustees takes over control of the 30 existing state colleges and contract institutions.

The second redefines more sharply the provisions for state aid to private colleges, which Catholic colleges feared might have an adverse competitive effect on the latter institutions.

The Association of Colleges and Universities of the State of New York, which comprises all institutions of higher learning in the state, requested the April 1 date.

Association spokesmen, Dr. Everett N. Case, president of Colgate University, and Dr. Frank Fackenthal, acting president of Columbia University, expressed concern about vesting control in the trustees on July 1 or even October 1, a date suggested by legislative leaders.

The private educators said that if assumption of administration were delayed until next year, possible maladjustments of a shorter transition period would be obviated.

They said private schools also would have more opportunity to present their views to the trustees on the character and future administration and supervision of the decentralized state university system.

George A. Timone of New York City, prominent Catholic layman, gave the Catholic point of view. He pointed out that the state constitution forbids state aid to religious institutions.

As a result an amendment was introduced stating that "in determining the need for additional educational facilities in a particular area, the facilities of exist-

Senate Will Consider Tax Cut Bill Next Week; Is Set at $4,700,000,000 By Senate Finance Committee Vote

Temperature Falls To Zero; Snow Is Nearing Record

More Than 6 Feet of Snow Have Fallen Already; Upstate Mercury Plunges

Three inches of snow fell in the city Thursday, bringing the total snowfall for this season to 75 inches, just one and one-half inches below the record 76.5 inches which fell in the winter of 1944-45, according to the records in the city engineer's office which go back to 1935.

Of the total this season, 13½ inches fell during the month of March to date. This is exceeded only by the 16 inches which fell during that month in 1939 and the 15 inches in March, 1941. However, the month is still young and those records may be exceeded before it is over.

Normal seasonal snowfall in this city over 13 years has been 39.35 inches, which means that this season the snowfall is already 91 per cent above the normal.

The type of weather experienced this month has definitely been "not good" for the maple syrup industry in this area, according to Walter Baran, assistant agent of the Ulster County Farm Bureau. While he could not estimate the actual percentage of loss, he said that the cold, cloudy weather has decreased the flow of sap appreciably. "What they need for a good flow is cold nights and warm sunny days," he said.

Are Below Normal

Temperatures during the first 11 days of this month have been well below normal for the month of March. Already this month two low temperature records have been made: On March 5 the thermometer dropped to one degree below zero, the lowest recorded at the city hall since March 4, 1938. The following day the mercury plunged to nine below for the lowest ever recorded in March since records were first kept at the city hall in 1937.

Today, the minimum temperature at the city hall was seven degrees above zero. Elsewhere in the county, unofficial readings down to zero degrees were reported.

Low Records Broken

Albany, N. Y., March 12 (AP)—Snow-covered New York began to warm up slightly today after a night of unseasonal sub-zero temperatures.

Low records for the date were broken in the Albany and Syracuse areas.

The mercury climbed slowly this morning and was expected to rise generally into the middle 20's. Below zero readings were predicted for tonight by the weather bureau.

The snowstorm that swept upstate areas yesterday, 60 years after the start of the famed blizz-

State Parks Director Must Pay $68,200 Damages, Jury Decides

Verdict Is Returned in Supreme Court; Crash Occurred May, 1947

A verdict of $55,000 for plaintiff was returned last night in Supreme court in the action brought by James Tompkins of Marlborough against James Evans, director of State Parks, New York State Conservation Commission, in his $100,000 action for personal injuries resulting from a collision involving the Tompkins car and a state-owned Cadillac car near Milton on May 10, 1947.

Helen B. Christal was awarded $7,000 and Dell C. Bolton was awarded $6,000. The two women sued for $50,000 each for personal injuries. They were passengers in the Evans car.

Testimony was concluded and the case was submitted to the jury at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The jury did not return its verdict until 10:30 p. m.

The actions of Mrs. Christal and Mrs. Bolton named both Evans and Mr. Tompkins as defendants but the jury found no cause against Mr. Tompkins and reported its verdicts only against Evans.

In addition to the $55,000 award for injuries the jury also awarded Mr. Tompkins $200 for damages to his car.

An action brought by James Evans against James Tompkins for injuries also resulted in a verdict of no cause of action.

Motions to set aside the verdicts were made by counsel for defendant, Evans, and denied by Justice Harry E. Schirick before whom the case had been heard.

The Tompkins verdict is the second large verdict to be returned at the present term of Supreme court. Last week a verdict of $40,000 was awarded Miss Anne C. Peterson of Newark, N. J., for injuries which she suffered in an automobile accident near Saugerties in November 1946.

In the action brought by Tompkins against Evans, it was alleged that Mr. Tompkins suffered permanent injuries when he suffered a broken hip and other severe injuries when his car and the state car collided on a curve near Milton. Tompkins alleged the Cadillac car came over to his side of the road and crashed head-on into his car. Evans defended on the grounds the negligence was due to the manner in which Tompkins operated his car. Evans claimed he saw the Tompkins car approach and contended the Tompkins car was on its left, apparently about to turn into a gas station. Evans claimed he then turned to pass the Tompkins car on its left but Tompkins swung his car back to the right and the cars met. Tompkins contended he never was on his left and alleged the Evans car was on its left or near the middle strip of the road as it approached him.

At the time of the accident Mr. Evans was en route from Bear Mountain Park to Kingston and Mrs. Christal and Mrs. Bolton had been invited to ride along. They were both in the front seat.

William A. Mulvey appeared for Mrs. Christal and Mrs. Bolton, N. LeVan Haver appeared for James Tompkins with Roy Featherstone and William H. Hayes of New York appeared for Evans.

Following the verdict court was adjourned until Monday at 10 o'clock.

Truman Puts U.S. Against Reds; Has 5-Point Program

President Admits His Faith in Attaining Real World Peace Is Shaken; E. R. P. Should Be Carried Out at Once, He Says; Sees China as Test

Washington, March 12 (AP)—President Truman today pitted this country's full political power and prestige against the spread of Comunism anywhere—including China.

At the same time a five-point administration plan began to emerge; a plan for coming to grips with what Secretary of State Marshall considers a "great crisis" in the world.

Within a few hours of each other, both the President and his Secretary of State spoke out with extraordinary frankness on the state of affairs resulting from the bitter conflict between Russia and the western powers.

For the first time publicly, the Chief Executive admitted that his faith in the attainment of a real world peace has been somewhat shaken. He said so at a White House news conference late yesterday.

Marshall, appearing last night before a meeting of the Federal Council of Churches, declared flatly that "the world is in the midst of a great crisis, inflamed by propaganda, misunderstanding, anger and fear."

The President was in the audience and heard Marshall couple with his pronouncement of crisis an appeal for moderation, calm thinking and cool judgment on the part of the American people.

Mr. Truman himself had said earlier that Americans should be

President Denies Pearson's Report On Jews' Loyalty

Columnist Quotes Publisher of Paper; Syndicate Says Source Reliable

Washington, March 12 (AP)—President Truman yesterday branded as "a lie out of the whole cloth" Columnist Drew Pearson's report that the Chief Executive once had termed New York Jews disloyal.

Pearson, whom the President did not identify by name, insisted later that his version was "all too accurate." He added:

"But I'm glad the President has now reconsidered his intemperate words."

Mr. Truman opened his news conference with the denial and said his remarks could be quoted directly, a departure from usual procedure.

He told the reporters to read the New York Mirror to find out about the column. The newsmen heard the President use the term "gossip paper," but the word "gossip" was omitted in this official White House version of his remarks:

"First, I want to pay attention to a vicious statement that was made by a columnist in a New York paper, in which he said I had made the statement here to an editor of a New York paper that the Jews in New York were disloyal.

"I had thought I wouldn't have to add another liar's star to that fellow's crown, but I will have to do it. That is just a lie out of the whole cloth. That is as emphatic as I can put it."

Column Is Quoted

In his "Washington Merry-go-round" column Monday in the Mirror, Pearson wrote:

"President Truman was talking to a New York publisher about Palestine.

"Pounding his desk, he made remarks about 'the ——— New York Jews.'

"'They're disloyal to their country. Disloyal!' he cried.

Charge Carneys Left Five Children With No Support

Sheriff George C. Smith and County Investigator Clayton Vredenburgh left the sheriff's office this morning for Bervard, N. C., to bring back to this county Fred and Josephine Carney, Town of Saugerties who are charged with abandonment.

The county officials carried a warrant signed by Peace Justice Ernest Schirmer of Saugerties, and, according to the sheriff's office, charging that the Carneys abandoned five children.

The couple left the Town of Saugerties in January, according to the report, after leaving the children with an elderly woman to whom they were to supply funds for the children's support. It is charged that they have not supplied the funds as promised.

Almost Two Billions Are Whittled From Measure Passed by House February 2

Percentages Used

Graduated Scale Basis of Reductions After Deductions

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Senate Republican leaders today tabbed their $4,700,000,000 tax cut bill for action next week.

Chairman Taft (R.-Ohio) announced that goal was set at a meeting of the Republican Policy Committee. Debate may not begin until the middle of the week but the aim is to get final action by the week's end.

In doing so, it whittled $1,800,000,000 from the $6,500,000,000 tax bill passed overwhelmingly by the House February 2.

The purpose of the Senate strategy is to try to win enough Democratic votes to pass a bill over the Presidential veto the Republicans expect. That would take a two-thirds majority in both the Senate and House.

Except for one major change which trimmed the amount of the cut, the Senate measure is practically the same as the House bill.

The Senate bill provides for percentage tax cuts ranging from 12.6 per cent for those with net incomes of up to $2,000; 7.4 per cent on incomes of from $2,000 to $136,719; and 5 per cent on incomes over $136,719.

Range of House Cuts

The range of House bill reductions is 30 per cent on incomes up to $1,000; 30 to 20 per cent between $1,000 and $1,395; 20 per cent between $1,395 to $4,000; and—over $4,000—20 per cent on the first $4,000 and 10 per cent on the rest.

In all cases these cuts are applied to income after deductions and exemptions.

Chairman Milliken (R.-Colo.) of the Senate Finance Committee said 70.5 per cent of the tax relief provided by the Senate bill would go to persons making less than $5,000.

The House bill would give 71.81 per cent of the $6,500,000,000 cut to those earning less than $4,000.

Under both the Senate and House bills:

1. The cut would be effective as of last January 1.

2. The personal exemption for each taxpayer and each dependent would be increased $100—from $500 to $600.

3. Husbands and wives in all states could split their income for tax purposes. This now can be done only in the 12 so-called community property states. This in-

Taxpayers Vote For Town Audit

Lomontville Association Wants State Check on Marbletown

At a meeting of the Lomontville Taxpayers Association held Thursday evening at the fire house, members of the association voted unanimously to petition the State Comptroller for an audit of the town accounts of the town of Marbletown to date.

That action was taken after the matter of recent transfers of moneys from the General Fund to the Snow Removal and Miscellaneous Fund had been discussed. Edward Doremus appeared before the taxpayers association and referred to charges he had leveled at a recent town board meeting, charging the transfers had been made by Supervisor Harry Snyder without official atcion by the town board to authorize such transfers.

After the matter had been presented by Doremus, Justice Stanley Steen said he was in favor of an official audit of the town accounts by the state comptroller and he said if a motion for such an audit were made at a meeting of the town board he would vote for an audit.

Justice Charles F. Hasbrouck was also present and a letter which he had written to the state comptroller was read. That letter presented three questions to the comptroller:

First, did the supervisor have legal right to transfer town moneys from the General Fund to the Snow and Miscellaneous Fund account without official authorization by the town board?

Second, did the supervisor have a right to spend money for one purpose when appropriated for an-

Bill Goes to Assembly

Albany, N. Y., March 12 (AP)—The Senate approved today and sent to the Assembly a bill which the sponsor said was designed to eliminate one of the "shocking abuses" against persons who buy goods on credit. The measure would compel finance companies to refund the unearned portion of interest and insurance charges when buyers pay their debts before the expiration date of the contract. Senator J. Raymond McGovern, Yonkers Republican and chairman of the legislative committee on installment financing, sponsored the legislation. It incorporated committee recommendations.

Two Mile Line Passes Masaryk Bier, Prague

Prague, March 12 (AP)—A line of weeping mourners nearly two miles long filed through Czernin Palace today to place flowers on the bier of Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk.

Masaryk's body lay in state from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m., but the throng was so vast the doors of the palace opened an hour early to permit school children to pass through.

As the mourners filed through the huge square in front of the palace where Masaryk fell to his death Wednesday, others queued up below for the walk up Hradcany Mountain.

Meanwhile, the Communists were strengthening their control of Czechoslovakia with a program of reorganization and legislation in a dominated parliament.

They also claimed new evidence of opposition plotting against the government in a report of the confession and suicide of a non-Communist political leader, Josef Herod.

That suicide was the second such to be reported officially this week. The government said Masaryk took his life by jumping out an apartment window Wednesday.

Parliament was slated in today's session to go ahead with committee organization giving Communists powerful posts and to legalize the work of action committees which prepared the way for the new government, sworn in just two weeks ago.

Communists already had been made chairmen of the important Budget and Foreign Affairs Committees. Rudolf Slansky, a Czech organizer of the Communist International Information Bureau (Cominform), was emerging as floor leader.

Premier Klement Gottwald had a unanimous vote of confidence—meaning, in effect, approval of his program to make the state all-powerful in industry and trade and give every farmer more than 100 acres. Sixty-seven — more than a fifth—of Parliament's 300 members were absent when the vote was taken yesterday by a show of hands.

The latest suicide was reported last night by district police of Eastern Moravia. Their statement said Herod killed himself in his jail cell in Moravska Ostrava after confessing to participation in a military plot to overthrow the republic. They did not specify how he ended his life.

Herod was secretary of the local branch of the anti-Communist National Socialist Party, lately brought under Communist influence and renamed the Czech Socialist Party. The Communist Interior Ministry had the party's Prague headquarters raided a few days before President Eduard Benes was induced to approve Gottwald's new government. The ministry said the raid turned up

Red Used 'Dum Dum' Bullet On Yank, Commander Says

Washington, March 12 (AP)—A Russian sentry sent an outlawed "dum dum" bullet smashing into the arm of a fallen and clubbed American soldier in Vienna Sunday, the U. S. Commander there reported last night.

The American, P.F.C. Jack Grunden, was attacked and hurled to the ground by another Russian, Lt. Gen. Geoffrey Keyes said; and then was beaten and shot with "a rifle bullet of the explosive dum dum type."

Such ammunition—which expands when it strikes—was outlawed in an 1899 agreement by Russia and virtually all other major nations.

The Soviet version of the Vienna shooting, Keyes added in his report to the army, was "a complete distortion of the facts." He said a Russian protest, submitted to him by a Colonel Ivanov, gave this account:

"Three drunk American soldiers" tried to disarm the guard at the Grand Hotel—Soviet headquarters in Vienna—and one of them struck the Russian with a bottle in the fight that followed. The Soviet sentry then shot the American in the arm, Ivanov said.

"First aid was rendered to the wounded on the spot," continued the Russian report, "and he was turned over to the American element."

But Keyes said in his report that Grunden and two other G.I.'s were attacked without reason while walking past the hotel with three Austrian girls.

A Russian soldier intercepted the Americans and the girls in the street, said Keyes, and made a "filthy remark." The Russian then grabbed one of the three men.

CottonClothBurns At Mill End Shop

Firemen from Wiltwyck station responded to a call at 4:50 p. m. Thursday from the Mill End Shop, 39 North Front street, where they found two bolts of cotton cloth smouldering, Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy reported.

The fire was discovered by Irving Pope, owner of the shop, who saw smoke coming from the material, the chief said. Firemen carried the bolts outside the store and extinguished the smouldering fire.

Chief Murphy today said the cause was "certainly sparks from a cigarette or cigar." Only damage was to the cloth and a slight amount of smoke in the shop, he said.

Jewish Moving Picture Slated at Agudas Achim

A cordial invitation is extended to all to see the Jewish moving picture, "The Cantor's Son," scheduled for two showings in the vestry hall of Congregation Agudas Achim on West Union street, Saturday and Sunday at 8:15 p. m. Proceeds of the movie will be for maintenance of the Kingston Hebrew School.

Actors in the picture speak Yiddish, but there are English titles throughout. There will be dancing and refreshments after each performance.

Nelson Palmatier of Tannersville reported to police at 3 p. m. Thursday that, while he was driving east on North Front street near Green street, his car was struck by another car and received damage to the rear fender. Palmatier told police the other car was driven by Aimee Rinaldy of Stone Ridge, and that the accident was caused by the icy condition of the pavement.

Contribution Increased

4. Increase the maximum standard deduction for contributions, medical and certain other expenses to $1,000. It is $500 now. On income of less than $10,000 the top deduction would continue to be 10 per cent.

5. Raise the exemption for blind persons to $600, from $500.

6. Allow persons 65 or older an extra $600 exemption.

7. Apply the income splitting principle to estate and gift taxes.

On the final 10 to 1 vote, Senator Connally (D.-Tex.) cast the only ballot against the Senate Committee bill.

When a reporter asked Millikin whether he believed the Senate bill could be passed over a veto, he replied:

"I think it will get very strong support, but I am not making any predictions about overriding a veto."

Mr. Truman successfully vetoed two Republican tax bills last year.

This year the President has said he is opposed to any cut in individual income taxes unless that cost is offset by higher corporation taxes. His proposal to give everyone a $40 "cost of living" tax credit on this basis was defeated in the House.

Eskimos Get Plane Food

On Life's Wrong Road, But Boys Can Drive

Hartford, Conn., March 12 (AP)—State police early today were debating what to do with two boys, aged 12 and 10, who, they said, attempted to drive from Woburn, Mass., to New York city in a stolen truck.

The youthful pair, accompanied by a large mongrel dog, was halted at the Charter Oak Bridge Toll House. Their beardless faces and the lack of 15 cents to pay the toll proved their undoing.

The boys, without food since noon, set out from Woburn for New York about 6 p. m. yesterday, State Policeman Walter T. Swaun said.

They safely traveled more than 100 miles of slippery, snow-covered highway with the 12-year-old at the wheel.

"Whatever else you say about them," said Swaun, "they could show some adults a thing or two about driving."

ing public and private institutions shall be fully evaluated and adequately considered.

"In the formulation of plans and recommendations, full opportunity shall be provided for the existing public and private institutions to be heard concerning specific proposals for expansion and development."

Meanwhile, the battle between the Dewey administration and the Regents raged on, with both sides claiming victory.

The Regents had asked that the state university board of trustees, to be appointed by the governor, be limited to the role of a planning and recommending body, at least until 1949, when, they said, final decision could be made by the legislature as to where ultimate administrative authority should be lodged.

The Regents contended particularly that the trustees would lack experience to assume immediate control over the existing state colleges, which are to be incorporated into the state university system.

Upon learning that this control has been deferred until next April 1, Regents Chancellor William J. Wallin said the postponement "will afford to that board and to everyone concerned with education an opportunity to understand the problems involved.

But the legislative leaders and Case and Fackenthal quickly observed that the change in date "in no way impairs the authority of the state university trustees to proceed with all of the program contemplated by the (Young) commission report, including the establishment of a state university system and of health centers and medical schools."

"Nor will it," they added in a statement, "in any wise delay the time for the establishment of additional facilities for higher education in the state of New York.

"In every respect, therefore, except the one upon which agreement was reached today, the state university trustees will be fully empowered to proceed in accordance with the original legislation on July 1."

This authority includes budgetary control over the existing state colleges and schools.

With an initial appropriation of $100,000, the trustees will devote their first year largely to planning the university system, which would include a number of four-year colleges, possibly a single campus institution, two medical centers and two-year community colleges.

Kellerhouse Asks Setting Aside of Larceny Verdict

Charles Kellerhouse, whose home address is unknown, was scheduled to be returned to this county today from Clinton Prison, Dannemora on an order signed by County Judge John M. Cashin so that he may testify in his own behalf in an effort to set aside a 1931 conviction here.

Deputy Sheriffs William Frost and Delbert Sapp were assigned today to bring Kellerhouse here for hearing March 15 at 10 a. m.

Kellerhouse contends that his constitutional rights were violated, according to the information, on the grounds that he was not represented by counsel at the time of his conviction on a plea.

Records of District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn show Kellerhouse was convicted in this county in 1931 on a charge of second degree grand larceny and sentenced by County Judge Frederick G. Traver to Elmira Reformatory.

The records show that Kellerhouse had also been convicted on a morals charge in Dutchess county in 1940 and at that time sentenced to a term of from 10 to 20 years in Sing Sing prison. After that sentence, he was returned to Ulster county as a parole violator, and committed to Dannemora.

KiwanisClubHears How Drugs Aid Field of Medicine

Four major discoveries of outstanding benefit to modern medicine were explained to members of the local Kiwanis Club at its luncheon meeting in the Governor Clinton Hotel Thursday by T. F. Fletcher, professional service director of E. R. Squibb & Sons.

These are penicillin, streptomycin, intocostrin or curare, and one with a long technical name used in the prevention of pneumonia.

The speaker, who was introduced by M. H. Englander, of the program committee, outlined the history of penicillin since its almost unrecognized discovery in 1929 to the important place it has won in medicine today.

Penicillin is now used in different forms to cure several diseases and its administration by injection in a wax and oil solution has precluded the need of repeating the injections too frequently, the speaker said.

Streptomycin, originally discovered in the soil, has been found effective against urinary infections, certain types of meningitis and has been "coming into prominence" as an effective treatment for certain types of tuberculosis. This, he said, is among the valuable drugs in the field of medicine today.

Intocostrin or curare, has been found effective against spastic paralysis in children and is known to produce pre-operational relaxation which is of benefit to both patients and physicians. There is still a lot to be learned about this drug, he stressed.

The fourth drug described, he said, was discovered recently to prevent pneumonia and has been found to have an immunization value lsting from one to three years.

William F. Leehive, president of the club, announced that the Kiwanis 4-H Club baby chick project will provide about 60 4-H Club members with more than 1,400 chicks. This about doubles the extent of the project last year, he said.

Woman Psychologist In Favor of Necking

Springfield, Mass., March 12 (AP) —There is nothing "as wholesome as good clean necking," in the opinion of a Springfield psychologist.

Dr. Dorothy T. Spoerl, a member of the Psychology Department of American International College, advised students, however, to "be relatively careful where and when you do it."

"You don't have to travel 100 miles into the woods where you'll be alone with temptation," she added.

Dr. Spoerl offered the advice last night to about 100 students attending the first of a series of three lectures on preparation for marriage.

She warned couples not to "spend so much time in wooing that on the day you walk to the altar the only thing you know about your spouse-to-be is that he or she is a facile necker."

Would Create Bureau To Promote Longevity

Albany, N. Y., March 12 (AP)—The joint legislative committee on the problems of the aging recommends creation of a bureau to promote longer life.

Senator Thomas C. Desmond, chairman of the joint committee, said yesterday the agency would be known as the Bureau of Adult Hygiene and Geriatrics. It would be part of the State Health Department.

The Newburgh Republican said "experts on aging" are convinced that "geriatrics can help man boost his life span to 100 years."

The field of geriatrics is concerned with chronic illnesses, prevention of degenerative ailments and "extension of vigor among our aging," Desmond said.

Game Club Seeks Outstanding Stock Of Holding Group

Woodstock, March 11—Following Monday night's meeting of the Woodstock Fish and Game Club, at which President Fred Tripicco presided, it was learned that the organization is anxious to redeem the outstanding stock of the Woodstock Athletic Holding Company. Shares numbering about 50 and representing approximately 25 per cent of the total stock issue are owned by nine individuals. The club owns about 75 per cent of the stock and it is anxious to secure the outstanding stock as soon as possible.

It would seem proper that the athletic field covered by the stock be turned over to the town for community use. It is believed that the Woodstock Fish and Game Club is in agreement with this idea but a clear title cannot be had unless and until all of the outstanding stock is received. The Town Board cannot contemplate acceptance of the athletic field as a town project without guarantee o fa clear title.

Spring and summer activities planned for the field include baseball and a children's playground. During the winter months, the young people of the town have greatly enjoyed the skating rink provided by donations of equipment and work from Supervisor Kenneth L. Wilson, Fire Chief Reginald Lapo, and numerous public spirited citizens. For next year, plans are under consideration for a much larger rink. However, it is understood that all efforts are somewhat hampered by the fact that the field is not town property.

Members voted to assist the Lloyd Rod and Gun Club of Highland in their desire to close the pheasant season for 1948. The reason given for this action is the scarcity of birds and the possibility of increasing numbers for 1949 provided the pheasants are not hunted this year. It is expected that further discussion will be had on this question during the Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs meeting in Port Ewen March 11. Another matter of importance to hunters which will be brought up at the Federation meeting will be the change in date from October 1 to November 1 for opening the season for the taking of upland game. Woodstock members are in accord with this proposal.

Albert Hall, district superintendent of the Conservation Department, drove from Stamford to be present at Monday's meeting and to answer questions put to him by the members on information pertaining to hunting and fishing.

Mervin Doremus, local representative of the New York Telephone Company showed two reels of sound movies, entitled "The Telephone Hour."

Supervisor Kenneth L. Wilson, vice-president of the Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs will be among the many representatives from Woodstock who will attend the meeting in Port Ewen on Thursday night.

Guild to Hold Exhibition Series Throughout Spring

Woodstock, March 11—The current tapestry exhibition at the Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen has proved to be so popular, the Guild has decided to hold open house with a series of exhibitions until its Summer Shop opens.

The next exhibition will include antique patch work quilts and appliqued needlework. This will open Friday, March 19 and the Guild has extended a cordial invitation to the public to visit the Centre any afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30. Those having fine old quilts or needlework they would like to show, are requested to bring them to the Guild Center no later than March 17.

Home Bureau Group Elect Four Officers on Tuesday

Woodstock, March 11 — The Woodstock Home Bureau unit held its annual meeting to elect officers on Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Josephine Neher. Nora Holdridge was elected vice-chairman of the unit, while Neva Shultis was reelected to the office of secretary; Muriel Schmidt re-elected corresponding secretary and Mrs. Pearl Shultis re-elected treasurer.

Although several names were submitted by the nominating committee for the office of president, all of those mentioned declined the office, and it is expected that a decision will be reached at the unit's next meeting. Those declining did so with regret because of already over-crowded schedules of work in the Home Bureau and other organizations in the town.

The nominating committee included Josephine Neher, Hermine Kutzschbach and Nora Holdridge.

Mrs. Emma Bonesteel of the Plank Road Home Bureau unit, spoke to the members on the subject of glove-making. Many skins of various types and colors were displayed as well as finished gloves. Mrs. Bonesteel will come to Woodstock to instruct the members in this work and the first lesson will be given Tuesday afternoon, April 6, beginning at 1 o'clock.

For beginners, Mrs. Bonesteel recommended the capeskin glove since she considered this to be the easiest to work with. To the first lesson, she requested each one bring a 6-inch transparent ruler, pencil, sharp pair of scissors, thumb tacks, tape measure and manila folder. Neva Shultis was delegated to ascertain the skins desired. These will be ordered within the next couple of days so they will be available for the second lesson. The first lesson will consist of pattern making and getting the general feel of sewing on leather.

Chairman Doris Hutty requested reports from the treasurer and secretary which were submitted by Mrs. Pearl Shultis and Miss Neva Shultis respectively.

A social period was held after the meeting and refreshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Josephine Neher. In attendance were Dora Klein, Arrarina Boyd, Pearl Shultis, Elizabeth Clough, Ethel Hasbrouck, Thelma Duane, Nora Holdridge, Marie Kleyer, Lottie Dock, Martha Graver, Peg Hurd, Doris Hutty, Joseph Neher, Edith Lasher, Dorothy Nichols, Muriel Schmid, Dorothy Ambrase, Hermine Kutzschbach, Effie Happy, Daisy Montgomery, Neva Shultis, Maude Shelton and Dolores Christiana.

The meeting will be a very important one as the treasurer's report will be read and the amount of the Memorial Fund will be announced. Youngster's Art Works on Display In Texas Exhibit

Woodstock, March 11—An exhibition representative of work done by 19 children in an age group of five to 10 years, who have attended the Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen Children's Workshop is now being presented at the State Teachers' Convention in Dallas, Texas.

Paintings in tempera chalk, line drawing and linoleum prints and blocks are included in the exhibition, and were done by Deborah Biddle, Carolyn Bitterbaum, Lee Carey, Judith Gilligan, Nancy Hawkins, Marvan Henry, Richard Hilton, Joseph Hilton, Elizabeth and Peter Horowitz, Anita and Jeanette Kaun Wallace Klitgaard, Peter Jones, Nina Osipow, Marie Rade, Elva Shultis, and Mary Tripicco.

Having heard of the outstanding work accomplished by the children in Woodstock, Ivan Johnson, director of art in city schools, Dallas, suggested an exchange of work. When Charlotte McGraw of Woodstock took the paintings, to Johnson, he was so impressed that he immediately had the children's work exhibited at the Teachers' Clinic meeting held in Dallas during the last week in February. Following the exhibition at the State Teacher's Convention, it will then be shown at Southern Methodist University, Dallas Museum, McMurray College and in other places to be announced.

Beatrice Gazzolo, director of the Educational Activities at the Guild, conducts the Children's Workshop during the summer months. She also conducts adult classes in design.

Lou Wilson Seeks Bass, Gets Big 70-Pound Tarpon

Woodstock, March 11—Newsreel and newspaper columns clicked away about a week ago when Louis Wilson of Woodstock reeled in a 5-foot tarpon weighing 70 pounds while fishing in Fort Myers, Fla. It is believed to be the first catch of its kind in those parts one month before the tarpon season opens.

When interviewed at his Woodstock Garage where he returned a few days ago, Lou appeared to be rather embarrassed by the publicity he has received because of his, as he referred to it, "lucky" catch. Asked about tackle used, Lou stated that he used artificial lure and a casting rod. He had expected to fish for striped bass.

With him on this fishing expedition were his brother, Supervisor Kenneth L. Wilson, William Dixon of the Irvington Inn, and Fred Tripicco. The fisherman had 12 strikes in two days but Lou was the only one having a prize catch. The others reported broken lines and poles.

It was learned that Fort Myers capitalized on its fine tarpon fishing and the fact that they are to be caught a month earlier than usual is very important to that community. Lou attributed the appearance of the tarpon ahead of schedule to the unusually warm weather had during his visit.

Lawmakers Kill Confidence Bill

Assembly Passes Resolution to Substitute Year's Study for Law

Albany, N. Y., March 12 (AP)—The legislature has completed the formal "killing" of the newspaper "confidence" bill.

The Assembly yesterday approved, with only seven dissenting votes, a resolution to substitute a year's study for a law giving newspapermen the legal right to decline to reveal the source of confidential information. The Senate previously had approved the resolution.

The new dead "confidence" bill was sponsored in the Senate by Thomas C. Desmond, Newburgh Republican, and in the Assembly by Lee B. Mailler, Republican Assembly leader from Orange county.

Mailler said last night he planned no further effort in behalf of the bill.

The measure was introduced after the jailing of two Newburgh newspapermen, Douglas V. Clarke and Charles L. Leonard.

They were fined $100 each and sentenced to ten days in jail for contempt of court. They declined to tell an Orange county grand jury the source of a lottery ticket reproduced in their paper.

Clarke and Leonard were released after five days' incarceration on habeas corpus writs because of flaws in the papers committing them to jail.

Case Is Adjourned

Philip Zwilling, 350 Washington avenue, was arrested Thursday morning on a warrant charging disorderly conduct. In city court, Zwilling entered a plea of innocent, and the case was adjourned until March 22. The complainant, Mrs. Rose Levine of 41 North Front street, was represented by Attorney William Kaercher.

There's New Glamour in the Way it Goes

TAKE the glamour of its tapered gracefulness for granted, if you will. One glance tells you it's tops.

Take an inside peek at its newly fashioned interiors—and see if you're not dazzled by the luxury that greets your eyes.

But wait—just wait—till you learn what makes this banner beauty run off with the year's high honors on the highway. Dollars to drachmas—you'll fairly itch to get in and GO!

For now your right foot commands a Fireball power plant that's as eager as a panther on the prowl—yet is so quieted in purr and pulse you barely sense its telltale throb.

Now you slip through traffic or light out cross-country as relaxed as a baby with his bottle—in a body that's bountifully big, cozily cushioned, and insulated against the usual noises of traveling.

Now you experience the first scientific system ever devised to shield a car's ride against road noise, shake and the vibration build-up that previously took advantage of an automobile's tendency to play sound box.

Now you ride the washboard roads and cobbles as though they were carpet—thanks to coil springs all around — plus extra-low-pressure tires, carried on Buick's own wider, more stable Safety-Ride rims.

And last but best, if a Roadmaster's your choice, you can enjoy the really effortless driving—in a new kind of drive that not only frees you of gear-shifting, but that doesn't even shift itself!

It's Dynaflow Drive*—a drive that's devoid of all halt, lag and hesitation through all speed ranges—because here, for the first time, the power plant itself does what gears used to do.

Fact is, you'll find the new Buick sparkling with more than a score of new advances — in ten brilliant models that span three series and give you your choice of three wheelbases and four power ratings.

So why dally? Here, certainly, is the dilly of the year for smartness and roominess—for the newest in driving ease and riding relaxation—and for all those basic bounties that are forever Buick's.

Place your order with your dealer now—whether or not you have a car to trade—and hasten the day when you'll reach those motoring heights you hanker for.

*Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster models only.

Revised Nursery Rhymes

Mary had a little lamb,
So the story goes,
She sheared off all his precious wool
And made herself some clothes.

And when the clothes were finished
She lacked one garment moot;
And so she sheared him off again
And made a bathing suit.

How wonderful a memory! It helps you to remember a story you have told a hundred times, but enables you to forget how many times you have told it.

Steaks at $4.25

(Wall Street Journal)

The high-price theme is one that is written into most menus (in U. S. restaurants). In Los Angeles, for example, a restaurant charges $1.75 today for a prime rib dish that was $1.25 six months ago; it has lifted a typical dinner from $1.30 to $1.75 in that period. In Detroit, a popular eating place has in 12 months, boosted its roast beef plate from $1.75 to $3 and its steaks from $3 to $4.25.

Mr. and Mrs. Newrich were staying at an exclusive Florida hotel. One evening at dinner the conversation turned to music, with special reference to Mozart.

Mrs. Newrich: "What a coincidence. Only this morning I saw him on the No. 5 bus with his wife; they were going down to the beach."

A dreadful silence followed, and for the rest of the meal Mrs. Newrich was acutely aware that she had "dropped a brick."

As soon as they were alone, her husband rounded on her.

Mr. Newrich: "Haven't I told you that when you don't know anything about what's being discussed you're to keep your mouth shut?"

Mrs. Newrich: "But what did I say wrong?"

Mr. Newrich: "You've been here long enough to know that the No. 5 bus does not go down to the beach."

Some business concerns have some pretty catchy slogans to advertise their wares, but the barber who thought up this masterpiece must have done more thinking than the customary talking. Under a picture of a man's head he put this message: "We need your head in our business."

Do it today: Tomorrow they may be a law against it.

She: (At dance) Does my gown look as though it was falling off my shoulders?"

He: "No. Come on, let's dance."

She: "I'm sorry, but I must go and rearrange it . . . it's supposed to look that way."

If every man were as good as he thinks he is, the wheels would run faster, production doubled, and our troubles would be over.

A girl got quite a surprise the other evening when a handsome young man she had never before seen called at her place.

Young Man: "Do you believe in the hereafter?"

Girl: "Why, er, certainly."

Young Man: "Then pucker up your lips and get ready to give me a kiss. That's what I'm here after."

Doctor Testifies Girl's Condition Was Serious

New York, March 12 (AP)—One of two doctors charged with manslaughter in the death of 22-year-old Jane Ward after an alleged illegal abortion testified yesterday that the girl came to his office in "a serious condition" and that he performed an emergency operation in an effort to save her life.

The defendant, Dr. Paul Singer, 43, Jersey City, N. J., took the stand in his own defense a few minutes after the state rested its case against him and Dr. Oswald Glasberg, New York physician.

Singer testified that on October 17 he received a telephone call from Glasberg who asked him to see Miss Ward. Later, he said, the girl staggered into his office, "slumped over with her head down on her chest."

Miss Ward lapsed into a coma as he began his examination, the physician said, adding that he called Glasberg and told him "he should come right over and help me and tell me something about her."

Dr. Singer said arrangements were made then for an emergency operation and by the time the girl reached the hospital operating room she was "in very bad shape—she was pulseless—lifeless—she was almost dead."

The young woman died 10 days later.

The state charges that Singer and Glasberg performed an abortion on Miss Ward before she was taken to the hospital.

The dead girl was the daughter of Ralph Ward, president of Drake Bakeries, Inc.

Walkout Possible March 15 Over Employment Rules

New York, March 12 (AP)—A.F.L. printers remained at their jobs in the city's commercial printing plants today but a union official forecast the possibility of a walkout Monday in protest against new employment rules, including a lengthened work week.

The new rules became effective yesterday in 200 book, job and magazine companies employing 4,200 International Typographical Union members. Union spokesmen said the changes stepped up the work week from 36¼ to 40 hours, abolished grievance procedure and seniority and permitted the firms to employ non-union help.

Mayor William O'Dwyer intervened in the dispute Wednesday.

Laurence H. Victory, president of I.T.U.'s New York City Local, said last night that union members would continue on their jobs today but declared "it is possible" they may all be out by Monday, the situation will be discussed at a membership meeting of the local tomorrow.

The union leader said the printers had filed demands for time-and-a-half pay for work over the normal seven and a quarter hour day.

New York's 14 daily newspapers also were faced with the possibility of a strike by members of the same local when the present contracts expire March 31.

The publishers have filed a complaint with the National Labor Relations Board charging the I.T.U. with trying to maintain the closed shop and with other violations of the Taft-Hartley Law.

The Publishers Association of New York city said that in the event of a strike, all papers would continue to publish, using engravings of typewritten copy—a process now being used by Chicago newspapers where a printer work stoppage is in progress.

Women's Club of Y.W. Presents Story of Easter In Original Three Act Drama at Baptist Church

The Lenten season was most properly observed by the Women's Club of the Y.W.C.A. in its presentation of "They Called Her Mary," at the First Baptist Church Thursday. An original drama written and directed by Mrs. Raymond R. Gross of the club, the play was a reverent insight into the possible events in the lives of the women connected with the Easter story. The audience filled the assembly hall of the church for both afternoon and evening performances.

Mrs. Gross wove in many beloved stories of the Master through the conversation of the characters. She also portrayed the woman of Samaria who was met by Jesus at the well: Her subsequent meeting with other women of His following opened the three act drama.

The entire play was marked with religious interpretation. All of the cast realized the import of their mission in telling the familiar Easter story with reverence as well as excitement in its details.

The costuming was an outstanding contribution to the effect of the play as the soft colors were blended harmoniously with water jars and garden flowers. Colorful lighting brought in the contrast of light and dark materials and the sparkle of jewels.

The settings were important also and the screened choir who sang the beautiful Last Words of Christ by Dr. Charles Gilbert Spross for the Easter scene were inspirational. In closing the choir formed a huge cross as Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus" was played. Each choir member was gowned in white and carried a sprig of lilies. Sound effects included the songs of birds and the lightning and thunder during the Crucifixion.

Mrs. Gross is to be commended, once again, not only for writing and directing but for enacting the role of the Samaritan woman. Mrs. Arthur J. Laidlaw portrayed Elizabeth, the mother of John the Baptist, who told the story of her son's birth and that of the Annunciation. Mrs. Raymond Craft as Joana, wife of a wine steward in Pilate's Palace, had an important role throughout the play as she converted her mistress, the queenly Claudia, wife of Pontius Pilate, played by Mrs. C. E. Burnett; Salome, mother of John and James, enacted by Mrs. Charles A. Terwilliger assisted in the conversion as well as Mary, Mother of the Messiah, played by Mrs. Vincent Connelly.

Lydia, former dancer in Herod's palace was played by Mrs. William Davis Hawk in probably the most difficult role of the drama as she was changed from an outcast leprous dancer to one of the women followers. Mrs. Richard Morse did the role of Mary of Magdala and Mrs. Earl Schoonmaker of the woman saved by the Master when the crowd named her an adulteress. Mrs. Adam Thiel was Martha, the sister of Lazarus and Mrs. S. Maxwell Taylor, the angel in the resurrection scene. The three slaves of Claudia were Jean, Joan and Addie Brown.

The cantata was sung for the story of the Crucifixion with solo parts by Mrs. Laidlaw, Mrs. Robert Pixley, Mrs. Ralph Harper and Mrs. Byron Chatham. The Rev. Edward V. Winder, pastor of the church, read the passage from the scripture and Mrs. C. Franklin Pierce accompanied the singing.

Other members of the choir were Mrs. Samuel MacKinney, Mrs. William S. Jackson, Mrs. Lloyd LeFever, Mrs. Raymond Woodard, Mrs. R. H. D. Boerker, Mrs. Willard Burke, Mrs. Lewis Smith, Mrs. Clifford Smith, and Mrs. Harry Reppert.

Mrs. Raymond Woodard welcomed the audience on behalf of the club and at the close of the production Mrs. Clarence L. Dumm, president of the club presented Mrs. Gross with two bouquets of flowers.

Stage managers and prompters were Mrs. Parker K. Brinnier, Mrs. Lewis Smith, Mrs. Ward Brigham. Mrs. Thiel and Mrs. Schoonmaker had charge of costumes and Mrs. MacKinney was business manager.

The Footlighters, new little theatre group of the city who will give their first production next month, provided the sound and lighting.

In reality the Drama and Music Appreciation Groups of the club produced the play under the auspices of the entire Women's Club. A food sale was held in conjunction with the entertainment.

The club expresses its thanks to the consistory of the church, the sexton and minister, who permitted the use of the church hall and assisted in the production. Appreciation is also expressed to all others who assisted.

College Club Hears Talk by Mr. Cooper

Stressing the challenge of building international peace before America today, Robert Cooper, executive director of the Wiltwyck School, spoke to the College Women's Club at its regular meeting Tuesday night in the First Dutch Reformed Church House. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Vincent Connelly, program chairman.

"For us Americans today," said Mr. Cooper, "education has a very special and deep significance, for education is the core of humanity . . . peace cannot be built nor can it survive if it is created, until better human relations are established.

"To me," said Mr. Cooper, "the concept of education is simple, for it means willingness to understand each other, to appreciate each other and the will to like each other . . . America can not give leadership to the world until its human relations at home have improved."

Mr. Cooper has had 15 years of experience working with boys whose minds have become damaged and warped in their early years. In the vast majority of cases coming to the Wiltwyck School the children have come from homes devoid of love and understanding, he noted.

After they have been made to feel they are wanted and that there is someone who loves and cares for them, they become decent human beings, he reported. At the Wiltwyck School, Negroes and White, Catholics, Jews and Protestants live together without racial or religious differences. A child who has known love for the first time does not recognize any difference between Negro and White.

"If these children can live amicably, so then can the adults who care for America's children if they want it so. If the human longing for love is not granted people cannot be decent human beings," he concluded.

Mrs. Lloyd LeFever presided at the business meeting. Miss Elma Kullman announced the production, "Out of the Frying Pan," to be presented by The Footlighters for the benefit of the Ulster County Cancer Fund April 5 at Kingston High School. Anyone desiring tickets may contact Miss Kullman, the club's representative at telephone 4715.

Mrs. LeFever urged the club members to volunteer their services to the Ulster County Public Health Nursing Association to help in making a survey of the city's health needs. She also announced a tentative date for the next Fellowship benefit bridge party as April 10 at her home.

Study groups will meet as follows: International Affairs, Friday, March 19, with Mrs. John MacKinnon, 181 Manor avenue, to discuss The Marshall Plan; Book Group, Tuesday, March 23, 8 p. m. with Mrs. Rose K. Witter, 117 Fair street.

The club congratulated Mrs. Phyllis Craft Smith on her recent literary success. In Mrs. Smith's absence, her poem, "Transcience" published in Songs from American Hearts, was read by Mrs. Herbert Fister.

A film strip, "The Marshall Plan for Peace," issued in collaboration with The American Foreign Policy Association was shown by Miss Ione Kinkade.

Hostesses for the evening were Miss Margaret Schuetz, chairman, Mrs. C. C. Rose, Miss Ilse Selmer, Miss Agnes Scott Smith, Mrs. Douglas Smith, Miss Madeline Tarrant, Mrs. James E. Tobin, Mrs. John Valentine, Mrs. Richard Whiston and Mrs. Rose K. Witter.

Reward Is Posted for Plane Missing on Hop From Virginia

According to a teletype message received at local police headquarters Thursday night, a $500 reward is being offered to the person finding a light airplane which may have crashed in this area.

The plane, a Piper Super Cruiser bearing the markings NC-7868-H, left Richmond, Va., at 11 a. m. Saturday, February 28, bound for Geneva, N. Y. It has not been heard from since, and is presumed to have crashed.

The pilot was Herbert Fink, whose mother has made the reward offer. With him was a passenger, Ellis Storr.

Bad weather may have caused the plane to deviate considerably to the east or west of its course, the teletype message stated.

Anyone having information as to the whereabouts of the plane is requested to telephone collect to R. B. Fraser at the Geneva Daily Times, Geneva 2311.

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post

(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

WHO SAYS GOOD MORNING FIRST?

A reader describes this unusual domestic problem: "We have such a nice maid, but for some reason of her own she never says, 'good morning' to my husband when she comes into the dining room to serve him breakfast. He refuses to greet her because he thinks she is disrespectful not to say it first. She evidently believes that it's up to him. Perhaps you can tell me what to do about this. I will be most grateful."

Tell her that "Mr. Jones would like to have 'good morning' said to him when he comes into the dining room," just as you would tell her of any other personal likes or dislikes that might be his—such as his liking to have his coffee before his fruit, etc.

Steak Knives

Dear Mrs. Post: I received a set of narrow-bladed razor-sharp knives that are wonderful for cutting. Is it proper to use these knives with my sterling silver? If so, are they placed next to the dinner knives or are they used in place of them?

Answer: I can share your enthusiasm for such knives because they are perfect for eating chop and chicken bones quite bare. They are put on in place of your silver-handled knives just as ivory-handled knives were used before silver ones came into fashion.

Wedding Anniversary Party

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter is giving us a wedding anniversary party and is sending the invitations in her name. She would like to stipulate on them that instead of individual gifts of silver, a purse of silver be given. May she do this?

Answer: Oh, please, no!

Arranging Silver for Left-Handed Guest

Dear Mrs. Post: When I invite someone to our house for dinner who is left-handed, how should the silverware be arranged for him.

Answer: The silver is arranged the same as for everyone else. A left-handed person always must adapt himself to the conventional table setting.

Are you planning to have a buffet dinner or a formal dinner? Mrs. Post's booklet, No. 503, "The Etiquette of Service," will be very helpful. To obtain a copy send 10 cents (coin preferred) and a 3-cent stamp to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Ladies' Apparel Store Has Anniversary Sale

Arlene's ladies' apparel store at 49 North Front street is observing its second anniversary this week and the occasion is marked with a special sale today and Saturday.

All the latest equipment was installed in the store before it was opened on March 7, 1946 by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Schwartz and the place was completely remodelled.

It is the aim of the establishment, its owners said, to maintain its policy of offering quality merchandise for both "mother and daughter," at reasonable prices.

A navy veteran of World War 2, Mr. Schwartz said, the store will continue the same methods which has made it popular during its first two years in the city.

Plug for MacArthur

Tokyo, March 12 (AP)—This sign appeared today on a two-story office building: "We wish General MacArthur for President of U. S. A." It was put there by Toshio Oda, longhaired Japanese poet and building contractor, who said he would spend 200,000 yen ($4,000) to help elect MacArthur. He plans to distribute 10,000 posters printed in English and Japanese.

Anderson Will Stay

Washington, March 12 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson said today he will remain in the cabinet at least until the end of the present session of Congress and "may not get out at all." Anderson has considered running for the Senate seat now held by Senator Hatch (D-N. Mex.), who has said he will not seek another term.

Attempt Is Failure

Trenton, N. J., March 12 (AP)—An attempt to enter the name of General Douglas MacArthur in the New Jersey Republican primary as a candidate for president failed today. Petitions for two district delegates and one delegate-at-large pledged to MacArthur's candidacy were received today at the office of the secretary of state.

The accident occurred about 1 p. m., police said.

EASTER HAM IS FLEXIBLE ENTREE

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Ham, America's traditional choice, again tops the 1948 Easter dinner meats. With the many types of ham available, homemakers can select the type and size of ham which best fits the size of the family. A whole or half ham will be the choice of the average family or, the two-some family which is entertaining on Easter. The small family can use baked or broiled thick center slices of ham.

No precooking is necessary for the modern Easter hams that come to market already made tender, says Beth Bailey, home economist for Swift & Co. Bake, fat side up, in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) according to the following cooking schedule. When done, remove the rind, cover with a glaze and bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 15 minutes or until the desired brown.

Weight	Cooking Time Total (min. per lb.) Time
15 lbs. or over	15 min. 3¾ hrs.
12 to 15 lbs.	16-17 min. 3 1/3 hrs.
10 to 12 lbs.	18 min. 3¼ hrs.
Under 10 lbs.	20 min. 3 hrs.
Half hams	22 min. 2½ hrs.

The twosome family also may select the smoked shoulder butt or "Daisy" which has a distinctive ham-like flavor. A meaty piece with no bone but enough inner streaks of fat to make the lean meat juicy and flavorful, this oval-shaped cut ranges in weight from 2 to 4 pounds. Some prefer to water-cook a daisy first and then glaze and brown in a hot oven. A fuller flavor results from baking a daisy in a low oven for about 45 minutes per pound and then glazing as for a ham.

SUNDAY'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Orange juice, scrambled eggs with chives, popovers, butter or fortified margarine, apple jelly, coffee, milk.

EASTER DINNER: Orange and grapefruit cup, baked ham, curried pineapple, mashed and fluffed sweet potatoes in casserole with buttered bread crumb top, buttered new white onions, green beans with almonds, spring salad bowl, French dressing, lattice rhubarb pie, cheese, coffee, milk.

EASTER SUPPER: Sliced ham, chutney or spiced apple sauce, baking powder biscuits, butter or fortified margarine, vegetable salad, golden cake, tea, milk.

Truman Puts U. S.

careful not to let their passions get the better of them before they know all the facts.

Out of the President's news conference comments and Marshall's brief speech came the pattern of administration policy for meeting the crisis.

Stresses Five Points

Officials expect that crisis to reach a climax first and most directly in the Italian political campaigns leading up to elections there, April 18. Here are the points which the President, the secretary—or both in some cases—stressed:

1. The European recovery program—which is now near final action in the senate but awaits house debate—should be carried out promptly.

2. The United States encourages the formation of what Marshall called a political association in western Europe as the first step to restoring stability.

3. The spread of Communist governments anywhere in the world, including China, is opposed by the American government. And Mr. Truman indicated this country will do everything in its power to block Communism.

4. The United States will continue to work for world peace wherever possible, but the problem is now more difficult than at any time since the end of the war.

5. Meanwhile, the American people must keep their fears and their "passions" under control in spite of what Marshall called the "distractions" of election year campaigns here at home.

"At no time," Marshall told his audience of churchmen, "has it been so important for cool judgment, for an appeal to one's self for a proper sense of justice, for a realization of conditions, material, political and spiritual, in other parts of the world."

The President's news conference discussion of American foreign policy came on the eve of the first anniversary of the Truman doctrine which he proclaimed a year ago today. At that time he asked congress for $400,000,000 to help Greece fight its internal Communist rebellion and to strengthen Turkey against the political and territorial demands of Russia.

The President was asked yesterday whether he thinks the Truman doctrine now needs expansion into other areas of the world.

He replied that he does not think so.

The so-called Truman doctrine, he went on, was in fact preliminary to the European recovery program. And if that program is carried out promptly it will accomplish the aims of the doctrine—that is, to help free nations everywhere to withstand the external and internal assaults of Communism.

This question led to another. Does Mr. Truman still feel as much confidence as he had expressed last December in the eventual achievement of world peace?

Solemnly the President conceded for the first time that his faith has been somewhat shaken.

Still Believes in Peace

But he added that he still believes real peace can be attained. And it must be obtained because the world cannot afford the destruction of another great war, he declared.

The only reference to the Communist seizure of power in Czechoslovakia came indirectly when the President was asked to comment on the death of Czech Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk two days ago.

Mr. Truman recalled that he had been well acquainted with Masaryk, said he felt very badly about his death, but added that people should be very careful, as Marshall had suggested at a news conference Wednesday, not to let their passions get the better of them before they know all the facts.

In this, the President presumably reflected the uncertainty on the part of State Department officials over whether Masaryk killed himself or whether he was murdered.

It was on questions regarding China that Mr. Truman came closest to declaring a new policy for the United States.

Up to that point it had been generally considered that the United States treated the Communist problem differently in China from its all-out opposition to Communism in other parts of the world.

Policy Is Same

As recently as Wednesday, Marshall had said that American policy on China was exactly the same as it had been for more than two years. Furthermore Marshall had left the way open, at least theoretically and so far as this government is concerned, for Chinese Communists to take part in the administration of all China.

But Mr. Truman said he did not know that American policy ever had favored including Communists in a coalition government in China. This government, he said, has had the policy of trying to help Chiang Kai-Shek maintain peace in the Far East. But in his view, broadening Chiang's government does not mean taking in Communists. But it does mean taking in Chinese liberals.

The United States, the President continued, does not want a Communist government in China or anywhere else in the world if that can be helped. His words were strong and emphatic. They had no qualifications.

Taxpayers Vote

other under the budget system?

Third, "If answer to questions No. 1 and No. 2 is 'No' would this be sufficient cause to remove the supervisor from office?"

A reply was read from the Comptroller stating that the answer to the first two questions was "No." The answer to the third question stated that it was a question "for the Supreme Court to determine" whether the transfers of funds without authorization of the town board could constitute grounds for removal of a supervisor.

The letter stated that either the district attorney, or any taxpayer could bring suit in the Supreme Court to test this matter and have adjudicated the question on "grounds for removal."

The meeting was attended by about 30 citizens, including several visitors from High Falls and Stone Ridge who sought information regarding formation of taxpayers groups in their areas.

At the conclusion of the meeting a rising vote of thanks was given to the two justices for "expressing their opinions and making public the information" which they presented. Town Clerk Milton Elmendorf also attended the meeting.

Farmers Study Plan

Des Moines, March 12 (AP)—America's farmers apparently have been boning up on the Marshall Plan. Successful Farming magazine said today a national cross-section poll of 6,000,000 farmers just completed shows 72 per cent of them have heard of the European recovery program. A January poll by the magazine showed only 48 per cent of American farmers had heard of the plan.

Priest Reaches Germany

Frankfurt, Germany, March 12 (AP)—Msgr. Edward Joseph Flanagan, founder of Boys Town, Neb., arrived by plane today. He will assist the youth programs in Germany and Austria. The Catholic priest, noted for his work with delinquent boys, came here with the intention of spending two months in Austria, observing and advising youth activities, on the invitation of Lt. Gen. Geoffrey Keyes, U. S. commander there.

Girls and Inflation

Tokyo, March 12 (AP)—Craning crowds turned out today as the Japanese government took the wraps off its newest anti-inflation measure—a group of shapely, scantily clad girls. On the third story balcony of a department store, the girls shimmied through hula dances. Traffic at the busy downtown intersection was jammed. Between dance numbers, an announcer exhorted the crowd to save their yen to fight inflation.

Hunter Street Man Drowns in River; Wife Gives Story

Harry Hutton, 53, Fell From Rope While Trying to Board Barge

Harry Hutton, 53, of 66 Hunter street, this city, drowned in the East River Thursday, according to word received by relatives here today.

The Associated Press reported that while his wife looked on helplessly, Hutton, a captain of a coal barge, died after he fell into the water while trying to climb aboard his boat via a mooring rope.

The wife, Helen, told police she had insisted that her husband use a ladder to board the barge, but he had sought to climb hand-over-hand to the deck via the rope.

Hutton was the father of two boys, Harold and Edward, who reside with his sisters, Mrs. Mae Eckert and Mrs. John P. Maley of 66 Hunter street. He also lived at that address when in Kingston, but most of the time lived on his barge.

He was employed by the Reliance Marine Transportation and Construction Corporation of 613-653 Abeel street and worked out of the firm's New York office. According to word received at the local office today, he drowned in the East river off 45th avenue on Long Island.

Harry Hutton was born in Kingston on June 28, 1895, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Hutton. He began work on the barges shortly after completing grade school at St. Mary's School in this city. When in Kingston, he attended St. Mary's Church.

The body is being brought today to the Henry J. Bruck Funeral Home, 27 Smith avenue. Funeral arrangements will be announced.

Surviving are his two sisters and two sons, who were born to him by a previous marriage. His present wife, Helen, mentioned in the Associated Press dispatch, is not acquainted in Kingston, according to relatives here.

Bearers were C. Victor Spinnenweber, Richard Mueller, Jr., William Fitterer and Augustus Hotaling. Remains were placed in the receiving vault in Riverview cemetery, Port Ewen. Burial announcement later.

Demands Cleanup

Berlin, March 12 (AP)—Berlin Socialist leaders demanded today that the Western Allies help clean up Berlin's Communist-controlled police department. They said a cleanup was necessary, "lest we become a second Prague." The demands were made at a meeting of the city assembly, where the Socialists are trying to remove Paul Markgraf, Berlin's police president. Markgraf was installed by the Russians.

Kingston-Newburgh Game in Highland Decides Section 9 Title

Maroon Choice To Cop Third Sectional Crown

Kingston High's undefeated DUSO basketball champions are poised and ready for the Section 9 finals against Newburgh Free Academy tonight in the Highland High School gym.

More than half of the 650 available seats in the gym are likely to be occupied by Kingston rooters. Coach G. Warren Kias said the championship game would start "sometime between 8:30 and 9 p. m."

A Kingston victory would extend the Maroon streak to 35 straight and snare the third section title in the history of the Broadway school. Not to mention a psychological lift for the March 20 engagement against the winner of Section 2 at Saratoga Springs.

Kingston Favored

The form chart says Coach Kias' sharpshooters can accomplish both objectives without too much trouble but certain factors involved have the more timid Kingston supports keeping their collective fingers crossed.

Newburgh was impressive in a 52-45 triumph over Nyack in the Section 9 opener and the Academians did give Kingston its biggest score of the season (32-28) on the Academy hardwoods.

The records show that N.F.A. lapsed into pleasant mediocrity after the gallant stand against Kingston and never approached that form until the Nyack contest. Jay Hodges scored 24 points against Nyack and has had frequent flourishes of high scoring during the season. Against Kingston, however, he has been just another ball player.

The tentative lineups:

Kingston		Newburgh
Lowe	f	Shapiro
Renzo	f	Hodges
Weaver	c	Tyler
Albany	g	Bowman
Ghear	g	Zodikoff

Quick Defeats Schilling, 125-31

The terse communication from the Kasilich Billard Parlor said: Clifton Quick 125, Frank Schilling 31. Enough said. Quick's high run was 14, Schilling's was unlisted. Cage Final On Monday

The regular 'Y' Basketball League title will be decided Monday night at the municipal auditorium when Sickler's Delivery and Chez Emile clash headon with identical records of 16 wins and 2 defeats.

The Shaughnessy playoff will get under way with four teams shortly after. Lou Schafer, physical director of the 'Y' and director of the league, said he would adhere to the strict Shaughnessy rule of first and third and second and fourth teams meeting in the first game.

The Shaughnessy finals will not be played until after the termination of the Mid-Hudson Valley tournament.

Trophies will be awarded the first and second place squads in the regular league season and a special trophy for the winner of the Shaughnessy.

Canadian Tennis Ace Moves to 2nd Round

New York, March 12 (AP)—Henri Rochon of Montreal, Canadian Davis Cup star, who is representing his country in the U. S. indoor tennis championship at the Seventh Regiment armory, breezed into the second round yesterday with a 6-0, 6-3 triumph over Don Wheaton of Pelham, N. Y.

Rochon was the only seeded foreigner to appear in yesterday's initial session. Joining him in the second round were 14 U. S. players, including Billy Talbert and Irvin Dorfman of New York and Ed McGrath of Brooklyn, who head the seeded list.

Talbert eliminated Fred Krais of Pelham Manor, N. Y., 6-0, 6-1, to move into the second round against Dr. Reginald S. Weir of New York, first Negro ever to play in a national championship.

Weir qualified to play Talbert by stopping Tom Lewyn, Scarsdale, N. Y., youngster, 6-4, 6-2, in the first round.

Giant scout and former pitcher Dutch Reuther gives a few pointers to Clint Hartung, Giant sophomore hurler and last year's most publicized rookie, as manager Mel Ott watches at the New York's training camp in Phoenix.

The Grapefruit Circuit

(By The Associated Press)

Bradenton, Fla., March 12 (AP)—With the signing of Pitcher Johnny Sain for a reported $30,000 to $40,000, the Boston Braves are at full strength for the first time since spring training began.

The big righthander who had a 21-12 slate in 1947, came to terms with General Manager John Quinn soon after arriving yesterday.

Manager Billy Southworth commented: "Sain is in the fold. That will be a big help."

The 41-game winner over the past two seasons was the last and most important holdout.

Earlier in the day Freilan (Nanny) Fernandez came to terms in a telephone talk with Quinn and was promptly assigned to join the Milwaukee Brewers of the American Association in training at Austin, Tex.

Fernandez, a shortstop, was shipped on a 24-hour recall option. Pitcher Al Treichel who had a 14-15 record with San Diego last year, is en route to the camp after reaching agreement with the management.

Ciudad Trujillo, D. R., March 12 (AP)—Outfielders Pete Reiser and Dick Whitman are getting a workout at first base for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Manager Leo Durocher, apparently experimenting in case he needs another first sacker instead of Jackie Robinson or Ray Sanders, said he wanted to discover the versatility of each Dodger. Some observers viewed this as another step toward moving Robinson to second base.

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 12 (AP)—The Washington Senators, who a few weeks ago would change the subject if anyone asked about the club's prospects, are looking happier these days because of three rookies. They are second baseman Al Kozar from New Orleans, and outfielders Dean Stafford from Greenville, Tex., and Larry Drake, from Sherman-Dennison of Texas' Big State League.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Joe DiMaggio will make his spring training debut for the New York Yankees Sunday when they meet the Boston Red Sox in an exhibition here.

The Yank outfielder has been taking it easy making sure of his throwing arm, which was operated on last fall for removal of bone chips in the elbow.

Sarasota, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Boston Red Sox pitchers Joe Dobson, Jack Kramer and Harry Dorish—all anxious to be starters when the season opens—will face the St. Louis Cardinals today in the Sox citrus circuit opener.

Rookie Neil Sheridan, up from the San Francisco Seals, will be in centerfield in place of Dom DiMaggio, who has a blistered throwing hand.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Manager Eddie Dyer, of Cardinals, was hoping today his hitters will get wise to what bats are for in today's games against Red Sox at Sarasota, Cards have twice been shutout by Yanks.

Tall Trio Leads On Florida Links

Jacksonville, Fla., March 12 (AP)—Three tall touring pros kept their heads out of the water that flooded parts of Brentwood municipal course and were on top going into today's second round of the Jacksonville Invitational Golf Tournament.

Skip Alexander of Lexington, N. C., was best of the three. He shot a five-under-par 33-34—67 yesterday on the first 18-hole leg of the 72-hole event. Fred Haas, Jr., of New Orleans and Herman Keiser of Akron, O., were one stroke behind Alexander at 68.

The big three, each well over six feet tall, overcame drainage ditches, casual water, rain and mud better than the rest of the more than 100 players entered. Heavy rains for several days made the fairway soggy in many spots and created an impromptu lake on the ninth to go along with the natural water hazard.

The field was well bunched. Eighteen golfers bettered par 72 for the 6,282-yard layout.

Two strokes behind the leading Alexander were Otto Greiner of Baltimore and Marty Furgol of Brooklyn at 69. Another stroke back were Lew Worsham of Oakmont, Pa., Steve Savel of Saratoga, N. Y., Vic Ghezzi of Kansas City, Kan., and Dick Metz of Arkansas City, Kan., at 70.

Cerdan 2-1 Over Roach

New York, March 12 (AP)—Underdog Lavern Roach of Plainview, Tex., shoots for the moon tonight in his bout with Marcel Cerdan, the dazzling European middleweight champ. It's better than 2 to 1 that the handsome exmarine will be short.

For Roach it's a long shot chance to parlay "rookie of 1947" into leading contender of 1948. This corner gives him a solid chance to do it.

Cerdan's style is unorthodox, consisting largely of throwing too much leather at a confused opponent. His best weapon is a left hook that he throws high.

The Roach camp has figured out its plan of attack most carefully. He's going in there to rush Cerdan. Of course, this could be suicide if Marcel tags him coming in. But, if he gets inside, that stiff right hand under the Frenchman's heart figures to slow him up.

The 32-year-old Cerdan is taking this as just another fight. He has to win to remain a world title possibility, but he's not overly worried about a boy they say can't hit to hard.

The Catskill All Stars and the powerful Valley Inn quintet of Rosendale have drawn the opening game in the first annual Mid-Hudson Valley Basketball Tournament which starts on Tuesday, March 16, at the Y.M.C.A. gym, Lou Schafer revealed today.

Twenty-two of the best known teams in the area will compete for the various championship trophies.

The companion attraction on opening night brings together the Catskill Boys' Club and the Stamford American Legion.

Dawkins Entered

Two latecomers—Dawkins Favorites of Kingston and the Arlington A.C.—boosted the entry to 22 teams. The Dawkins combine will feature such prominent stars as Big Ed Weaver, Mike Rienzo, Kep Lowe, Bob Ghear, Joe Albany, Ronnie Scheffel and others.

The Catskill All Stars represent a merger of the Catskill High School and St. Patrick's Academy squads. The top players are John Meo, John Jackson; Al Simmons, a member of last year's Saugerties Golds, Charlie Benton and Dan Darling.

Gil Kelder, the famed Wild Horse who insists he is far from antiquated, leads the Valley Inn cagers of Rosendale who sport a 14-4 record for the season. In addition to Kelder, the Rosendale quintet features two prolific scorers in Dan "Swede" Holmgren, Charlie Williams, Harry Kite and Tom Corrigan of Kingston Dodger baseball fame.

Good Records

Stamford Legion carries a 14-7 record against the Catskill Boys' Club (13-4). Stamford defeated mountain rivals like Margaretville, Roxbury, Oneonta and others. Highlights of the Catskill season included splits with the Hudson Boys' Club Alumni, Hudson tournament winners, and Cairo Legion.

Chez Emile vs. Highland Legion
Fuller Sports vs. Coeymans

Friday

William Street Social, Newburgh vs. Saugerties Amrods

Brandon, Davis Lose

Dave Brandon and Tom "Tiger" Davis, of Kingston were defeated in the Open division finals of the annual Adirondack A.A.U. District Golden Gloves boxing tournament last night in Albany.

Ben Becker, chairman of Adirondack boxing, said both bouts were exciting.

Brandon lost a split decision to Tom Georgio, of Schenectady, in the heavyweight finals. It was a close bout decided by a knockdown scored by Georgio in the third round.

Dick Tuttle, of Gloversville, won the 160-pound Open crown with a unanimous decision over "Tiger" Davis.

Harold Morton, of Albany, a local favorite, knocked out Jimmy Malatino, of Gloversville, in the third round of the 135 Open finals.

Supreme Head for Golfdom Needed Says Johnny Farrell

Richmond, Va., March 12 (AP)—Golfer Johnny Farrell said today that "some changes are needed" in big time golf's tournament play and its direction.

Farrell, national open champion in 1928 and former American Ryder Cup team star, labeled the Professional Golfers Association of America a "fine organization" but quickly added it needs to devise a program that will reduce the difference between the tournament professionals and the club professionals.

"There is too great a gap," Farrell said, "with too little interest being shown toward the club professionals. We have a strong need for better unity.

"There are too many tournament players who would have golfers believe club professionals know nothing at all about the game—that the swings possessed by the old timers are cockeyed by comparison with those of the big names of the circuit."

Regarding George Schneiter, of Ogden, Utah, chairman of the P.G.A. Tournament Committee, Farrell had this to say:

"As long as anyone is competing in tournaments he is directing, he can't possibly run them as they should be operated. He can't possibly have the respect he should have from the other players. His decisions can't be too firm, and there have been instances recently when a firm hand was necessary.

Suggests Sarazen

"That is why I favor employing someone in a full time basis to direct tournaments as they should be. Tournament golf has become a big business. It needs proper supervision on the spot."

Who would Farrell suggest as the man who could run the tournaments?

"Gene Sarazen," Farrell said. "A fellow like Sarazen could do the job. It would cost money, but I am certain it's the kind of money that would be well spent.

"Gene is a strong personality who has rare judgment and the respect of players and sponsors. I think he would be the ideal man. The young name players certainly wouldn't be brash around him. He's smart enough not to lose his head, and he's firm enough to make his decisions stand, regardless of who they might affect. Moreover, he knows the game as a playing professional of note and as a club professional."

Worcester, Mass.—Dick Callahan, 158, Boston, outpointed Lenny Trader, 154½, New Haven, 8.

Bowling

The tears flowed like wine, the coffee tasted like Mississippi mud, the steaks were like India rubber and everybody was feeling mighty low at Sam's Restaurant after Tuesday's crucial Booster League engagement between Sam Moss' trundlers and the intrepid, ink-stained tyros of The Freeman Publishing Company composing department.

There had been dire predictions of what Sam's were going to do to the Freeman boys. As a matter of fact, everybody was surprised when The Freeman keglers showed up. This elementary maneuver astounded Sam's hash slingers so completely they suddenly developed five thumbs on every hand.

Diers Cracks 578

Charlie Diers, a fast baller from way back, led The Freeman attack in major league style, blasting 578 with 197-202-179. Warren Simmons, the fugitive from a Hollywood studio, furnished 495. J. Walter "Deacon" Scharp had a modest 432. Andy Campbell 436 and Hal Miller 486.

According to the scoresheet, Sam's also bowled. Ed "Varipapa" Wyant shot 191-505, Bob Tierney 489, Sam Moss 449, Sam Avnet, Old Icicle himself, 530 and George Pieper 384. It was reported that George was trying out a new one-fingered ball.

Elsewhere in the league V. Bruck shot 180-513; L. Amell 189-522, C. Schryver 185-503; R. Amell 226; A. Werbalowsky 190-528, W. Sickler 178-517; Bill Atkins 180-533; Don Keyser 193-514.

Johnny Ferraro's 648 series, with 256 solo, and Fred Ferraro with 324-202-600 led Hotel Ulster to a three game sweep over Town Cafe last night in the Major League.

Only modest scoring featured the weekly round of pin toppling by the hotshots. Johnny Schatzel tossed in 215; Phil Corrado 210; Hod Spaulding 208; Harry Smith 226, Ad Jones 204; Al Kieffer 201; K. Williams 224; Stan Winne 236; C. Davis, Sr. 214-600; R. Kelder 209-235.

George Robinson reeled off 209-224-190-623; D. Howard 225-603; N. Niles 212; J. MacLellan 208-214; "Pop" Van Alstyne 210-226-607; L. Weishaupt 204; Ed. Whitaker 217; "Red" Sangl 220; P. Masters 217.

E. Francis Blasts 541

Evelyn Francis had her scoring shoes on in the Jacobson Mixer, firing games of 167, 171 202 for 541. It was topped only by Leo Mellert's 202-551. The other "500s" were Joe Heidecamp's 196-523 and R. Giles' 502.

Y Church League

Don Weeks of Clinton Avenue No. 3 topped the Y.M.C.A. Church League, American Division, this week by hanging up a neat 562 series on scores of 191-214-157 to pace his club to the odd win over Clinton Avenue No. 1.

Other top scores in the circuit included F. Williams with 190-517, Art Crist 219-493, Arthur Carr 184-513, Austin Hitchcock 207-561, G. Woodvine 183-505, W. Davis 184-501, Harold "Chick" Smith 182-502.

Central Rec Loop

E. Robinson fashioned a 607 triple to lead the Central Recreation League this week but scores in full will not be published as they failed to make the deadline.

Robinson sparked Ulsters to the odd win over S.J.S. with a 224—607 mark. His other scores were 192 and 191. H. Seelbach just missed the coveted 600 with a 597.

Other good scores turned in were Provenzano 210—540, Spada 213—566, Secreto 189—529, Bruhn 188—516, Webber 225—551, Winne 208—541, Nick Turck 187—540, Bud Neer 188—502; Bob Myers 206—544, S. Woyden 186—503, G. Schline 220—535, Jack Martin 197—582, Pere Slover 168—503, Larry Peterson, Sr., 196—532, Jim Costello 211—550, F. Russano 196—532, Ernie Magnusson 189—541, C. Davis, Sr., 182—532, C. Davis, Jr., 190—522, and A. Thiel 184—502.

Radel Blasts 257

Ken Radel waited until his last game Wednesday night to stir up things in the Catholic Athletic Association. But better late than never, Ken piled up enough sticks to give him a rousing 257 singleton for St. Peter's, Radel, who opened with games of 179 and then dropped to 145, wound up with a 581 triple.

Madden of K. of C. No. 1, winners in three straight over St. Peter's, copped high series honors for the night by blasting 590 on games of 222-174-208.

Other worthy scores reported included Jack Schatzel with 189-522, Ed Schupp 197-556, G. Uht 224-572, J. Magnino 205-509, Fred Ferraro 189-521, J. Coniglio 190-507, T. Costello 181-512, P. Sypca 189-500, J. Sweeney 189-520, Len Freer 215-556, Mayone 173-502, Jack Hartman 192-556, Joe Watzka 212-542, B. Finkle 190-516, A. Gilday 184-520, P. Nagy 200 and L. Yonnetti 185-505.

Schatzel Tops Women

Rose Schatzel topped the Colonial Women's League Wednesday night, tardy reports on the league activities indicate. Due to the late arrival of the scores, Wednesday's results will not be published in full.

Mrs. Schatzel led the Central Rees to two wins over Chez Emile by banging 218-559. Margie Jansen followed with 181-524 and Doris Wolff came up with 177-520.

Other top scores in the loop included Bertha Schaller 176-502, Evelyn Moore 209-545, Dot Flemings 214-501, Jo Smith 202-527, Bea Barley 187-527, Evelyn Dolson 172-490, Dot Rawding 183-538 and Betty Bruck 200-491.

Midnight League

Chris Robinson's 225—598 highlighted the Midnight League trundling this week as the Flying Saucers rolled up pinnage of 2691 to trip Harco Motors in two games. Robinson reeled off games of 177-196-225 to set the pace.

Itemized scores of these matches will not be published this week, however, as the scores failed to make the deadline at the downtown Freeman office.

Robinson, T. Amato and R. Dumenigo featured the Flying Saucers with 225—598, 213—537 and 202—534 respectively, in posting games of 765-978-948 for the 2691 blast. Pete Fabiano had 201—506 for the losers.

Other top scores in the league found M. Milano with 200—521, Vince Clearwater 187—518, A. Smith 201—505, M. Chirlin 210—500, A. Hoey 220—570, Ralph Lehman 175—504, Paul Khederian 183—539, T. Welch 201—559.

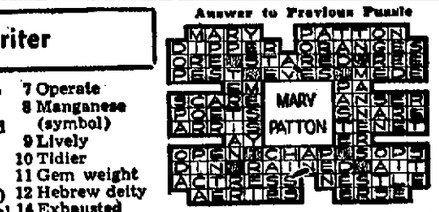
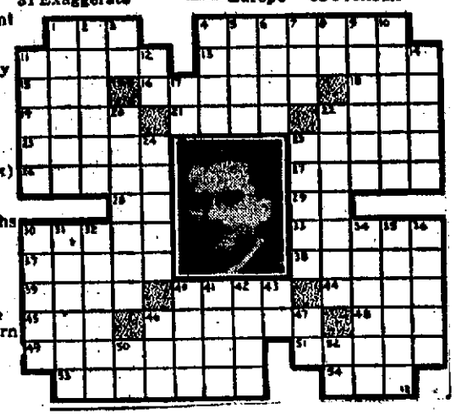
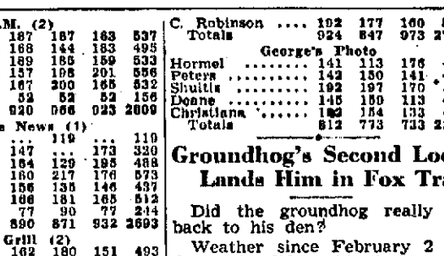
Answer to Previous Puzzle







Groundhog's Second Look Lands Him in Fox Trap

Did the groundhog really go back to his den?

Weather since February 2 indicates he did see his shadow and duck back in.

But, that fellow must have been a sissy. At least two local hunters think so.

George Leonard and Bob Schellpepper met up with a lively old groundhog yesterday right in the open.

When they went to look at some fox traps in Old Hurley, there was Mr. Groundhog in one of them, very much alive and ready for a real battle.

Those who stick to the legend that the groundhog goes back to his burrow, if he secs his shadow, probably will insist that this fellow was walking in his sleep.

Anyway, Leonard and Schellpepper have 22 pounds of furry proof that not all groundhogs are afraid of snow.

New York, March 12 (AP)—Metropolitan Life Insurance Company statisticians have given the brush-off to the romantic legend of Leap Year. They predict the 1948 marriage rate will decline from the high levels of the past two years. The all-time peak—1946—was 16.3 for each 1,000 population. The 1947 rate was about an eighth less.

evidence of a revoluntionary conspiracy.

Herod's reported confession gave Gottwald a ready-made case against opponents as his Communist Justice Ministry brought People's Courts back into existence to review sentences passed upon persons accused of collaborating with the Germans during the occupation.

The police said his admissions would be useful in the ministry's prosecution of high officials of the party whom Gottwald himself has charged with plotting a putsch.

These include Prokop Drtina, former justic minister; Peter Zenkl, former deputy premier, and Dr. Vladimir Krajina, former party secretary general. Drtina recently was reported to have attempted suicide by jumping out a window.

The three were among deputies absent from Parliament yesterday. Also absent was Vojta Benes, Right-Wing Social Democrat and brother of President Benes.

The president, now spending most of his time at his country home at Sezimovo Usti, has made no statement on the passing of his old friend and fellow worker. But Mrs. Benes came personally from there to comfort Masaryk's sister, Alice.

Parliament will recess tomorrow for Masaryk's state funeral.

On court order, police yesterday seized the March 8 edition of the United States Information Service bulletin because of editoral excerpts in it from U. S. newspapers. It was the fifth such confiscation here.

When Bard Talks Business

The trio above proved Thursday night that a lot of fun can be had when Bard talks business. D'Alton B. Myers, left, principal speaker, Alfred J. Worsdell, Jr., center, moderator, and Arthur J. Laidlaw, chairman, kept the second panel attendance in the Bard Plan for Small Business interested for more than two and one-half hours at Kingston High School Auditorium. (Freeman Photo) small business which shows signs of success may be immediately faced with a new and more strongly financed competitor."

5. Learn the tools of management.

6. Learn to plan and control. "By control I mean that in a dynamic, growing, fighting, competing business, your financial controls must be the basis for your policy decisions. You must budget —not just your expenses; but your sales, your purchases, your investments in equipment, your personal withdrawal. Yes, even your profits," Myers said.

7. The type of customer must determine the location for the business. Parking space, traffic regulations and the locations of customers' homes and offices must be taken into consideration, he said. He warned those contemplating setting up a new business not to fear competition. "If you are going fishing, you go where there are fish, even though there may be other fishermen there," he said.

Speaking on the political interests of the small business man, Myers counseled against seeking legislative favors. "Special legislative favors beget more legislative favors, which invariably take the form of restrictions and controls."

Competition Is Life Blood

"The small and growing business man will benefit most by competition and he should take every opportunity to further it. The danger is that when competition is tough, businessmen will seek relief by special laws or combinations. The relief becomes protection which tends to make them soft and easy-going. Then when new competitions develops —and eventually it will—they can't meet it."

In his introductory remarks, Myers said that, although the small businessman likes to think of himself as a self-supporting individual, "in this day and age we have to be very cognizant of world affairs. Whatever we do today is contingent upon world affairs. We've got to solve the world problems." He added that he did not believe war was the solution.

The type of small business which he was talking, he said, had the following characteristics:

"The owners are the managers, or at least they are active in making management policies.

"The owners in any one business are few in number—not more than three or four.

"The equity capital (what there is of it) is supplied by the owners, or by a small group.

"The owners have to do many jobs. They have to be specialists in many fields—usually an impossibility."

Those present were given a table compiled by the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance showing that Ulster county had during the first quarter of 1946 a total of 1,498 businesses, of which 1,374 had 19 or fewer employes. Of the remainder, 67 businesses had between 20 and 49 employes; 32 had from 50 to 99, and 25 had between 100 and 499 employes. Not a single business in this county had 500 or more employes.

Quick Turn-Over Is Point

During the question period, Myers was asked what the best possible fields are at present for an ambitious young man. He replied that, if he were interested in making a quick net profit, he would choose a business where there was plenty of action and a quick turn-over of merchandise, such as women's ready-to-wear garments or groceries.

He also suggested that there should be opportunity in any business dealing in material for leisure time use, such as sports, cultural developments, bookstores, and rental libraries. "Look over the territory and find the business which has not been put into large organizations," he said.

One expedient for a young person wanting to start a business, he said, would be this:

"If you want to start a business in a city of 25,000 inhabitants, get a telephone book from that city and one from a nearby city of 100,000 population. Match the businesses and find one which is in the larger town but not in the smaller. Then go over to the larger place and get a job. After you get experience, return to the smaller city and set up your business."

Asked which is more important in a successful business personality, "knowing how, or knowing what," he replied that, assuming that one has a reasonable amount of both, another factor, knowing people and how to deal with them, is even more important.

The question of how much capital is needed to start a certain kind of business was brought up. He said that this must be determined by how much annual profit is expected, how many times a year the inventory is turned over, and the cost of equipment and store or shop.

In his remarks, Worsdell, the moderator, termed small business "the future of enterprise." He said that small business has always been and always will be the seedbed of leadership, because its men must be able to cope with all problems. "On its healthy condition rests our economic future," he said.

He also asked for a better understanding between businessmen and government officials. He said that at one time recently in Albany nine different organizations each claimed to represent business, while labor "made it clear what they wanted," by having only one representative.

An additional 28 tickets for the entire series were sold at the door Thursday night. There are six panel discussions remaining in the series, which is being conducted here by Bard College, Annandale-on-Hudson, with the cooperation of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce.

When Grunden intervened, he was thrown to the ground.

During the scuffle, the Russian soldier fired his pistol into the air, the report said. A Soviet sentry posted across the street ran up, flailed at the fallen American with his bayoneted rifle, then clubbed Grunden with the rifle butt and shot him as he lay on the ground.

First aid was given by an unidentified American doctor and an Austrian doctor, but, Keyes declared, the Russians gave the Portland, Ore., soldier no help during the 45 minutes he lay in front of their headquarters.

The American general said a preliminary protest has been made to the Soviet commander in the area.
